

Meet Suveesh, our caring and compassionate Residential Service Manager

Suveesh has worked in aged care for the last 14 years. Starting his career in the Air Force in India, he decided to follow his wife's footsteps and trained to become Registered Nurse after they both moved to Australia in 2012. Now with a post-graduate Nursing qualification, Suveesh was most recently Clinical Manager in a Port Macquarie aged care community.

Why did you decide to enter the aged care industry?

My first RN placement was in an aged care community and I loved it so much, I never wanted to work in the hospital environment. I received lots of positive feedback from this first placement. People said I had a natural affinity for helping elderly people, but I just loved listening to them and hearing about their life stories.

How do you support your team to provide the best possible care to residents?

With my RN background, I help my team with both clinical guidance and day-to-day support. I encourage every member of my team to acknowledge the important role they have in residents' lives. I also encourage them to never stop learning and I follow this same advice. We can all continue to develop new skills, share our knowledge and motivate each other to provide the best care experience possible.

What do you think makes Bundaleer such a special place to live and work?

This is such a warm and supportive community filled with amazing residents and staff. Our team strives to provide the very best care for residents, and we support each other every day. Together, we will continue to make Bundaleer an even more welcoming community where residents feel at home.

Fun Facts

Favourite food: I eat anything that doesn't bite me back!

Reading or tv: I enjoy watching educational items on YouTube, like Ted Talks or medical videos

If you could travel anywhere: I'd love to take my two kids to Disneyworld while they are still in primary school

Your inspiration: My wife. She has been an RN for 20 years and I'm constantly inspired by her compassion for other people

Favourite childhood memory: I grew up in India and my Dad was a policeman. I used to be driven to school in the police bus which was very cool - especially because it made all the other kids jealous!
